

TRANSPORT TIPS - HOW TO GET TO ANCHORAGE

North Stradbroke Island Transport Information

North Stradbroke Island is easily accessible by water taxi or vehicular ferry, with regular services operating from Cleveland. Once on the island there is a range of transport options including a taxi service and bus system operating between Dunwich, Amity Point and Point Lookout. All the townships are linked with sealed roads that are accessible by conventional vehicles, however a 4WD is required for driving on beaches. Permits can be obtained from the Redlands on Moreton Bay Visitor Centre or various places on the island. Eco-friendly scooters are for hire at the Anchorage Beachfront Island Resort.

Travel Times

Water Taxi - 25 minutes
 Vehicle Ferry - 50 minutes
 Ferry terminal to Anchorage via taxi/car/bus – 20 minutes

FROM BRISBANE BY CAR ~ Follow signs on Old Cleveland Road through to Cleveland (30 mins). The water taxi & vehicle ferries depart from Toondah Harbour, Emmett Drive, Cleveland.

FROM BRISBANE BY RAIL ~ Take the Citytrain to Cleveland from Central or Roma Street Stations (60 mins). Regular buses depart Cleveland Station for a short five minute trip to Toondah Harbour where you can catch a water taxi.

FROM GOLD COAST BY CAR ~ Travel north along the Pacific Highway and take the Cleveland exit (No. 30) onto Cleveland/Beenleigh Redland Bay Road and follow the signs to Cleveland.

FROM GOLD COAST BY BUS/RAIL ~ Buses depart from the Surfers Paradise bus terminal for the Brisbane Transit Centre. Catch the Citytrain from the Transit Centre to Cleveland. Regular buses depart Cleveland Station for a short five minute trip to Toondah Harbour where you can catch a water taxi.

FROM SUNSHINE COAST OR BRISBANE AIRPORT BY CAR ~ Head South along the Gateway Motorway and over the Gateway Toll Bridge. Turn left into Old Cleveland Road (approx. 5km) from the bridge and follow the signs to Cleveland.

FROM BRISBANE AIRPORT BY RAIL ~ Catch the airtrain from the airport to Central Station, Brisbane. Then take the Citytrain to Cleveland from Central or Roma Street Stations (total trip 90 – 100 mins). Regular buses depart Cleveland Station for a short five minute trip to Toondah Harbour where you can catch a water taxi. Depending on the time of day you are travelling, catching a taxi from the airport direct to Cleveland (40 mins) cost approx. $75.